Nuans Rules & Guidelines

We recommend that every Corporate name have a distinctive element (a unique part of the name making it different from other names), and a descriptive element (which describes the companies main service or purpose). We recommend not registering a name that is a similar match to a pre-existing Alberta corporate body. Registration of name that is an exact match to a pre-existing Alberta corporate body is prohibited.

The name of a Non-Profit Company MUST end with Limited or Ltd. Unless the registrar has directed otherwise. Please contact Corporate Registries for questions regarding the name of a Non-Profit or Not for Profit Company or Organization @ 1-800-661-3723.

The name of an Alberta society MUST contain a descriptive element and a distinctive element. The name MUST also contain one of the following legal elements:

- Society
- Association
- Club
- Foundation
- Institute
- Guild
- Fellowship
- League
- Committee
- Council
- Board
- Centre
- Bureau

The name of an Alberta religious society MUST contain the distinctive name or designation of the church or religious denomination which it belongs to. The name MUST include the name of an Alberta city, town, village or community. The name MUST also contain a legal element which indicates it is a religious society:

- Church
- Fellowship
- Ministry
- Ministries
- Assembly

For further information regarding name rules and regulations please ask to speak to one of our corporate clerks or consult the Business Corporations Act (BCA), Companies Act (CA), Societies Act (SA) and Religious Societies' Land Act (RSLA).
